2	Finance report/income from fundraising/website
	Barclays account balance: £6,907.76 Petty cash: £53.01 Bucks Lottery: £8.00 Oct 2022
3	Work in progress
	Richard is continuing the pondliner repair, aided by the Community Payback teams. Dave Miller has supplied the tree to be planted in memory of Liz Miller. He has also supplied the wild flower seeds to be planted around Liz Miller's apple tree. Nigel will check out the eco-toilet in advance of the Picnic in the Park. Re exercise equipment, what we need has to be determined so we can obtain like for like quotes from 3 different suppliers.	Richard Nigel
4	Events
	Picnic in the Park - 9/16 October 2022 Alan asked for a flyer to be distributed. Nigel and Carla offered and discussed who was doing which roads. Alan has asked Margaret to produce cup cakes and tray bakes for the tea tent and Peggy will produce an apple cake. Carla and Pat to run tea tent. Vic will organise the bar and stocks on Sunday am. Nigel, John and Geoff will run it at the event. Wendy to produce price lists. Band get free tea and cake. Alan will organise £100 for floats. Two marquees will be erected Saturday afternoon. There will be assistance of the community payback teams Sunday morning. Carla will obtain hot chocolate, cups for hot drinks and milk. Bonfire Night 5 November 2022 Vic will run the bar. Nigel drumming up donations. Alan will obtain glow sticks for the kids. Nigel will ask Michele if John will help with the BBQ. If not, Richard will step in. It was agreed that a banner will be produced highlighting the event and thanking everyone in the community for supporting the event financially. It will be generic so we only need to change the date each year. Wendy will look at this. Nigel will put lights by the entrance and the pathway leading to the bonfire.
